5. Policy Statement

- 1.1 Global Banking School (GBS) is committed to providing an inclusive campus environment that is free from bullying, harassment (including sexual harassment) and sexual misconduct. We believe all students, staff and visitors have the right to study and work in a safe environment, where everyone is treated with dignity and respect. We are committed to preventing and eliminating all forms of misconduct and harm. All members of our GBS community have a responsibility in ensuring that their interpersonal relationships and interactions are characterised by mutual respect, open communication and clear consent. Behaviours that fall short of our commitment to each other and a breach of this policy, including inappropriate actions or failure to act, may result in disciplinary action.

6. Purpose

- 6.1. GBS is committed to providing a positive and safe environment for all students and staff to study, live and work.

As a Higher Education Provider, and as a community:

- We will not tolerate any form of harassment, sexual misconduct or sexual assault.
- We will promote an open culture and encourage reporting of incidents and concerns.
- We will respond to all reported incidents in a supportive and constructive manner, investigating as appropriate, and applying sanctions where necessary.
- We take our duty of care to our students and staff very seriously. We believe that no person should suffer the effects of sexual assault or sexual misconduct alone and will ensure that there is appropriate specialist support available.

If you are a student and have experienced or witnessed harassment, sexual misconduct or sexual assault, or if you have concerns about a person or situation, please use the online reporting system or speak to any other member of academic or professional support staff. This may include a Student Success Tutor (SST), lecturer, Level Lead, or a member of the Student Support and Wellbeing team—such as the Head of Student Welfare, the Safeguarding and Wellbeing Coordinator, or the Student Conduct Manager. If you disclose something to a member of our Customer Services team or through the main switchboard, they will ensure your concern is passed on promptly and sensitively to the appropriate team, either a Sexual Violence and Misconduct Officer (SVMLO) or the wellbeing or safeguarding teams.

If you are a GBS member of staff, and have experienced or witnessed harassment, sexual misconduct or sexual assault, or if you have concerns about a person or situation, please speak to your line manager, a trusted colleague, a member of HR, or the designated Senior Employee Relations (ER) Manager. You can also report concerns via the Speak Up confidential reporting channel. All disclosures will be taken seriously and handled sensitively, with support provided as needed

Full details of how to raise a concern, and how GBS will respond, are available in the relevant procedural documents for staff and students. All cases will be investigated under the Sexual misconduct and sexual assault involving students: Procedure for reporting and investigation. Where a student is found to have been the harasser, the Student Code of Conduct and Student Disciplinary Policy and Procedure will apply. In the case of a member of staff, it will be the GBS Disciplinary Policy & Procedure.

7. Scope

7.1. This Policy covers all incidents of harassment, sexual misconduct or sexual assault, and applies to:

- all students of GBS: any individual registered on any programme of study at GBS, including summer/evening school or short courses, including (without limitation) students studying away from our premises as part of their course/programme and apprentices.
- all GBS members of staff: all individuals employed or engaged by GBS, whether paid or unpaid, to carry out work for GBS. This includes (but is not limited to): employees, managers, executives and board members, agency workers, temporary staff, contractors, volunteers and research staff; students undertaking paid work for GBS;

This Policy also applies to incidents arising outside of the immediate GBS context, but where a member of staff or student is involved or affected.

This Policy is supported by, and should be read alongside:

- Student Code of Conduct
- Student Complaints Policy and Procedure
- Student Disciplinary Policy and Procedure
- Anti-Harassment and Anti-Bullying Policy and Procedure -Students
- The Disciplinary Policy and Procedure (for Staff);
- GBS Anti-harassment and anti-bullying Policy and Procedure – Staff;
- The Safeguarding Policy;
- The Prevent Policy;
- the Procedure on referral to police or other relevant authorities of alleged criminal offences;
- GBS Guides: 'Help and Support after Sexual Assault' and 'Guidance for students accused of sexual violence or misconduct'; and,
- GBS Policy on Consensual Relationships

8. Definitions

8.1. What is sexual misconduct?

Sexual misconduct is any unwanted conduct of a sexual nature. It can occur in person, online (for example, by email, messages or on social media), by letter, telephone or text, or otherwise. Sexual misconduct includes, but is not limited to:

- Rape, i.e. sex without consent, as defined within the Sexual Offences Act 2003.

- Sexual assault: sexual touching of another person without their consent; or engaging, or attempting to engage in a sexual act with another individual without consent; or any unwanted physical sexual advances.
- Sexual harassment: unwanted conduct of a sexual nature which creates (or could create) an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating, or offensive environment for others, including making unwanted remarks of a sexual nature.
- Exposing or inappropriately showing intimate parts of the body to another person, in person or through online means.
- Recording intrusive, intimate or explicit images or recordings of a person without their consent.
- Sharing intrusive, intimate or explicit images or recordings with third parties without consent.
- Implied or open threats, intimidation, or promising payment or benefits in kind to gain sexual favours or gratification.
- Arranging or participating in events which may reasonably be assumed to cause degradation and humiliation to other people, for example, those who have experienced sexual violence, such as inappropriately themed social events or initiations.

8.2. What is consent?

Consent is where a person willingly agrees to something, and that person has both the freedom and the capacity to make their own decision. In particular:

- Silence, or a failure to say no or otherwise resist, is not consent.
- Consent cannot be assumed on the basis of a previous sexual experience or previously given consent. Each new sexual act requires a re-confirmation of consent.
- Once given, consent may be withdrawn by the individual at any time, including during a sexual act.
- A person cannot give consent if they do not have capacity to consent. A person may not have capacity to consent due to their age, or due to a mental or developmental disability, or because of intoxication (e.g. being drunk or on drugs). A person that is asleep, not fully conscious (e.g. unconscious, semi-conscious, or in a state of intermittent consciousness), or in any other state of unawareness does not have capacity to consent.
- A person's consent is not valid if they have been coerced, forced, threatened, intimidated, misled or pressured into doing something, expressly or otherwise. Lying to a person about a sexual act, for example by saying you will wear protection and then failing to do so, may also void consent.
- An imbalance of power can undermine consent. Given the inherent imbalance of power in the academic context, GBS strongly discourages intimate relationships of any kind between staff and students.

9. Principles

9.1. We expect all members of the GBS community to:

- Read, engage with and uphold this Policy.
- Treat all members of our community with dignity and respect, sharing in our joint responsibility for creating and sustaining an environment which upholds the dignity of all.

- Understand that everyone has an individual duty in the prevention of sexual assault and sexual misconduct, which includes actively maintaining and promoting a safe environment free from sexual assault and sexual misconduct.
- Recognise the significant impact of all experiences of sexual assault and sexual misconduct, and acknowledge the potential detriment to studies and employment, regardless of when the experience occurred.
- Recognise the additional impact that sexual misconduct may have on those who are more vulnerable, by reason of past incidents or by the intersection of such misconduct with any other characteristics protected under the Equality Act 2010.
- Respect the rights of individuals who suffered sexual assault, misconduct or harassment, including their right to make a disclosure or a formal report, and respect and support how they choose to take forward their disclosure or report.
- Report instances of sexual misconduct when they occur and comply fully and openly with any investigatory or disciplinary processes that follow.

In addition to the above, GBS will:

- Work to sustain an equal and safe environment in which a culture of prevention will be promoted through appropriate and consistently applied education and training.
- Actively respond to all reports of sexual assault and sexual misconduct and ensure that, in all cases, reports are carefully and thoughtfully considered by appropriate staff members through a process that is transparent and clearly communicated to the individuals involved.
- Widely publicise this Policy and ensure all members of staff and students are aware of its contents.
- Ensure that all staff in relevant roles are aware of this Policy and are trained in its application as appropriate to their roles.
- Ensure that there is a named support person available to provide support for all affected by sexual misconduct.
- Work with local partners, including the Police, and other key groups to forge positive relationships to support all our work in this area, from prevention to enquiry and post-incident care.
- Be mindful of our civic responsibilities to the wider community.
- Seek to learn from experience, so that our community remains safe and supported to the best of our ability.
- While we will consider your wishes, there are some exceptional circumstances in which we may need to share information with external agencies or partners and/or progress with an internal investigation for the purposes of safeguarding and fulfilling our duty of care. For further information relating to the use of data, please refer to our privacy policy.

10. Roles and Responsibilities

This Policy is the responsibility of the Deputy CEO. It has been agreed and approved by the GBS Academic Board and by the Board of Directors, following consultation with relevant stakeholders.

10.1. Monitoring and Oversight

The application of this Policy is overseen by the Dean of Students, with the management and support of the Deputy CEO. The Head of Human Resource provides additional management and support where staff are concerned.

Strictly subject to confidentiality and data protection requirements, aggregate details of reports and disclosures are summarised and formally reported by the Deputy CEO to the GBS Academic Board and Board of Directors on an annual basis. This allows for appropriate oversight of the use and impact of this Policy and GBS's efforts more generally.

For more information on how GBS manages personal data, please see the GBS Privacy Policy or contact GBS's Data Protection Officer on DPA@globalbanking.ac.uk.

6.2 Sanctions

Sexual assault and sexual misconduct constitute serious breaches of this and other GBS policies. All reports of sexual misconduct will be reviewed and appropriately investigated. Sexual assault and sexual misconduct constitute serious breaches of this and other GBS policies, such as the Safeguarding Policy and the Student Code of Conduct, and as such could ultimately result in dismissal (for employees) or termination of registration (for students).

Where the conduct may constitute a crime, it may also be reported to the police and appropriate authorities for investigation. Conduct that raises fitness to practice concerns will be reviewed under the appropriate procedures.

Individuals have a right to raise concerns under this Policy. Victimisation of any individual who raises a concern will not be tolerated and will be dealt as a (further) breach of the GBS's applicable policies.

11. Policy Amendment and Administration

- 11.1. This policy may be amended by GBS at any time. If there are any queries relating to policy administration, please contact the Academic Standards and Quality Office at asqo@globalbanking.ac.uk.

12. Data Protection and Confidentiality

- 12.1. GBS is registered with the Information Commissioner's Office as a Data Controller. Details of the School's registration are published on the Information Commissioner's website. GBS as a Data Controller implements appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure that processing of personal information is performed in accordance with the UK General Data Protection Regulations (UK GDPR) and under the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA).

13. Alternative Format

- 13.1. This policy can be provided in alternative formats (including large print, audio and electronic) upon request. For further information, or to make a request, please contact the Academic Standards and Quality Office at asqo@globalbanking.ac.uk.
